

2013-14

Dear Colleagues,

Greetings from CRA!

I am glad to inform you that the CRA Governing body meeting was held on 5th July, 2013 in New Delhi. The Meeting of the Governing Body observed that several members have not cleared their full membership fees and annual subscriptions till date. The GB resolved that a final request be sent to all those members to deposit their dues (balance amount and the annual subscription) latest by 31st August, 2013. The Governing body has asked the CRA Secretariat to pursue the matter regarding membership fees and annual membership fees.

The Governing Body also resolved that as per CRA Memorandum of Association only those members whose dues are cleared up to date are eligible for participating in the CRA elections. Therefore, it is hereby requested to all concerned Members to clear their dues latest by 31st August, 2013 in order to make themselves eligible to participate in the elections 2014. Members, who fail to clear their dues within the stipulated date may pay their dues on a later date and continue their membership; however they shall not be eligible to participate (to elect or get elected) in 2014 elections.

The list of defaulting members may be had from the CRA secretariat and Zonal Vice Presidents. All zonal Vice Presidents are also requested to pursue the matters in their respective zones.

Dr. Kandarpa Das, President welcomed the members present and briefed the members regarding activities during the last four months after the last Governing Body meeting during Sammelan. He also thanked NIOS for providing this opportunity to organize this meeting.

Agenda Item No. 1. Ms. Archana Kapoor, Treasurer presented a report regarding the latest status of the collection of annual membership fees. It has also been observed that 20 members did not clear their full membership fees i.e. Rs. 5000/- till date. After the discussion, it was resolved that a final request will be send to all those 20 members to deposit their dues (balance amount and the annual subscription) latest by 31st August, 2013. It was also resolved that all other members would be requested to clear their annual subscription for 2012-2013 & 2013-2014 latest by 31st August, 2013. The secretariat was asked to pursue the matter regarding membership fees and annual membership fees.

The members also discussed the issue of defaulter members participating in CRA elections process. It was opined that as per MOA only those members whose dues are cleared up to date are eligible for participating in the CRA elections. Hence, it is resolved that a general circular be issued to all members to clear their dues within 31st August, 2013 in order to make themselves eligible to participate in the elections 2014. A final list of members whose dues are cleared up to date will be prepared, which will serve as the final electoral roll for the CRA elections 2014. Members who fail to clear their dues by the stipulated date may pay their dues on a later date and continue their membership; however they shall not be eligible to participate (to elect or get elected) in 2014 elections. The secretariat has been asked to pursue the matter with all defaulting members by sending letters by emails and post and also over phone. All zonal Vice Presidents are also requested to pursue the matters in their respective zones.

Agenda Item No. 2. Ms. Archana Kapoor presented a report on the financial status of CRA for year 2012-13. She also informed the members that accounts for the three MIB sponsored consultations have already been submitted to the Ministry and it has been accepted. The audited report of the accounts would be circulated to the members soon.

Agenda Item No. 3. The Governing Body discussed the matter regarding setting up a Academy by CRA for organizing training and capacity building for the CR personnel in the country. Initially, the Academy may start organizing various activities for training and capacity building in collaboration with various academic institutions in the country and till than CRA Academy may function as a virtual academy. It is resolved that an amount of Rs. 4,00,000/- (Rupees four lakhs only) be reserved in a fixed deposit account in the Central Bank of India, Gulmohar park branch, New Delhi as a Corpus fund for the academy. Another surplus amount of Rs.1,50,000/- (Rupees one lakh fifty thousand only) will be put in fixed deposit for the CRA in the same bank immediately.

Agenda Item No. 4. Governing approved the decision of the President, CRA of allocating an amount of maximum Rs.25,000 to zonal chapters for various activities during 2012-2013. Since, only Southern zone and the eastern & north east zone (jointly) has requested for such allocation, it is resolved that fund may be allocated to the concerned zones only. From the next financial year, the allocation of funds will be as per provisions of the MOA, amended in February, 2013. After discussion, the Governing also resolved to approve the additional fund request of Rs. 10,000/- to the Southern zone as a special case. However, it is resolved that no request for additional fund shall be entertained by the Governing body in future and zonal chapters are requested to generate the additional fund requirement from local sponsors.

Agenda Item No. 5. The Governing resolved to initiate the process for the next elections to the Governing body immediately. As the first step in this direction, the defaulter members would be requested to clear their dues as resolved in Agenda item No. 1 and final electoral roll will be prepared and handed over to the Returning officer in October, 2013, who in turn would prepare the election schedule in consultation with the President. It is desired that the schedule be notified latest by December, 2013 and whole process is completed before the next Sammelan to be organized by the MIB. The Governing Body accepted the proposal of the President for appointing Dr. O. P. Dewal, Department of Communication and Journalism, IGNOU as the Returning Officer for the CRA elections 2014. The Governing Body also approved the following procedure to conduct the elections.

Step 1: Publication of the Draft Electoral roll by the CRA Secretariat.

Step 2: Consideration of request to amend anomalies in the electoral Roll by the Secretariat.

Step 3: Publication of the Final Electoral roll by CRA Secretariat

Step 4: Declaration of Election Schedule by the Returning Officer

Step 5: Invitation for nominations for the post of 6 Vice Presidents (one each from North, South, East, West, Central and North-east zones) and 16 Executive members of the Governing body (minimum one from each zone in order to ensure balanced representation).

Step 6: Scrutiny of nominations by the Returning Officer and declaration of valid nominations

Step 7: Conduct of elections by secret ballots by the Returning Officer

Step 8: Declaration of Results

AOB: The office bearers of various zones present complained that a lot of radio stations in their respective zones have not got their dues from DAVP. The secretariat was asked to get in touch with all the members regarding their dues from DAVP. The secretariat has also been asked to get in touch with DAVP for the payment of dues to CRA members

Ms. Archana Kapoor, Treasurer informed the members that in order to cut down expenditure the CRA secretariat has been reduced to one coordinator Ms. Sumati Thusoo with approval from the President.

The meeting ended with a vote of thanks to the chair.

Dr Ashok Singh Sunhal: Alwar ki Awaz

Chair: Amol Goje, Vice President, West Zone.

The agenda was shared by Mr James Rajasekaran at the start of the meeting and one by one all the points were discussed by the board.

The Board resolved that:

1. Someone, preferably the President will have to give an explanation to the general body about why the information about the meeting post the Sammelan was not informed to the members 22 days in advance. Also the board has to inform as to why members were asked to leave when they arrived for the meeting on the scheduled time.
2. The GB meeting will be conducted every 3 months, either through skype or by hosting a meeting at a place convenient to majority of the members
3. Hence forth any Chapter meetings/workshops/events must be organized and decided in consent with the Zonal Vice President and that the proposal will also have to be sent through the Zonal President. In case any financial support is to be received from CRA the protocol should be followed (sheet attached)
4. The registration fee of Rs. 5000 will remain as a reserve and be held as a corpus fund only and will not be included in deciding the share of the Zone or State Chapters
5. No TA/DA will be paid to any national body member, for any chapter/zonal meetings
6. All programmes will use the a Standardized Logo of CRA for all its chapter meetings and reports etc
7. All CRA members can attend GB meetings as observers, provided they have paid both the registration and the annual membership fee
8. CRA will not allow dual membership in any other Indian organization

- 7
9. CRA can apply for membership to AMARC or any other international forum, organization if there is a direct benefit to the sector, there is a raise in the profile of CRA or in which there is no conflict of interest.
 10. If and when an official invitation comes in to CRA, the Secretary General/President will circulate the email within 48 hours to all the members/board. In case no one responds, then the Secretary General will use his/her discretionary powers and nominate a station or an individual accordingly to represent CRA in conferences/ or official meetings
 11. In case of a meeting being attended by CRA board members, any one of the members shall be requested to represent CRA, and this should keep in mind the hierarchy of the organisation
 12. All General body meetings should be announced 28 days in advance, with the venue and time circulated well in advance along with agenda- both through mail and hard copy.
 13. All records and cheque books of CRA will stay in the Delhi Office. There will be no shifting of records or of the bank /auditors.
 14. The Treasurer should take charge within 30 days of the posting of the minutes and will have to do all proposals, budgets, handle monetary issues, resolve issues of NEFT etc and also interact with the Ministry on issues of finances.
 15. The Treasurer should be available when Ministry calls for budgets and discussions on the proposals submitted and for all discussions pertaining to the work of CRA.
 16. All the elected members will have to observe and practice an ethical code of conduct in their own stations and projects. They will be very careful about the bills submitted or project protocols- as they will have to lead by example.
 17. Tamilnadu Chapter be paid 25 % of the Rs 18000/- which had come as annual membership from TN/Puducherry members, which amounted to Rs 4500/-

The vote of thanks was proposed by Ms G Gandhimati who especially thanked Dr Sreedher for making the meeting happen. All the members expressed their gratitude to Dr Sreedher for his effort.

Dinner was hosted by CMD, Rathinavani Group of Institutions

Other discussions

- Open house to be organized by TRAI on 3rd July 2014
- Subcommittees to be set up at the earliest and members to take initiative
- Dr Sreedher offered to formally assist in the handover of accounts to Saleela, along with Umesh in Archana's absence on the 10th July, as Archana has a prior commitment
- James invited all members for the Experience Sharing workshop in KonguCR organized by TN/PY Chapter

A meeting of the GB members was held on October 10, 2014 at Lucknow

It was attended by:

- 1. Archana Kapoor
- 2. Salila Bhansali
- 3. Madhusudan Pandit
- 4. Braham Prakash
- 5. Kurian Verghese
- 6. Mirza Beg
- 7. Pinky Chandran
- 8. Jitender Sharma

The board resolved that:

- 1. It is important that CRA hosts workshops and Sammelans and works closely with MIB as it adds to the credibility of CRA and it is a way of being visible and building an identity
- 2. The workshops are part of CRA mandate and should be organised with support from Zonal President and local partner/member stations depending on where the workshop is to be conducted.
- 3. In the FY 2014-15, four workshops have to be organised -one in Wayanad. It will be done in the leadership of President South zone, and with Radio Mattoli as the partner station; The second one will be done in Kutch, under Salila Bhansali , Treasurer CRA with local partner Sayere jo. The third workshop in Mussorie and fourth one in Haryana needs volunteers to take charge. (Jitender to revert back if his organisation decides to take charge)
- 4. It was also decided that the decentralization of work can happen but for finances Secretary General and Treasurer will be in charge as nobody was ready to take end to end responsibility
- 5. Membership drives will be the responsibility of the Zonal Presidents
- 6. Deshraj will be retained for the workshops and will be paid from coordinator's charge in the budget so that CRA will not be burdened.
- 7. Bhoomika will be an employee of CRA and will be paid from the funds received from the project until the work is there then CRA will pay for her salary. Hence forth she will be the contact person for all secretarial matters and should be accepted as the point person for information including sending emails.
- 8. CRA should appoint an accountant immediately.
- 9. One laptop and dongle to be purchased immediately
- 10. When it is the considered decision of the GB on any matter, with necessary quoram then every elected member must respect the same and any adverse comments on the decision must be first circulated within the GB, with valid reasons and not publicly.

11. Should a member repeatedly go public disregarding the GB quorum , three notices will be sent, following which an emergency GB meeting will be called and President can move a no confidence motion
12. The proposed monitoring system on community radios by BECIL was discussed and it was agreed that stations may agree to host the loggers on site
13. The GB members also decided to scrap the existing committees that were formed at the first GB with a request for new volunteers to head it as no work had been done so far.
14. Mr Braham Prakash agreed to manage the website. CRA Secretariat will get the website registered.
15. Also in case no body pitches and if a member works on different issues and takes initiative he/she should not be targeted
16. In case the members have any grievance CRA should finalise a date for a meeting in a mutually convenient place for all GB members (at the individual members cost) and discuss everything to help resolve issues.
17. The Board agreed to include the clause required by Income tax for applying for 12A and 80G, which had already been circulated to all GB members.

Minutes of the Meeting of the General Body held on March 15th, 2014,
YMCA Hostel, New Delhi

Agenda:

- Declaration of results of the newly elected CRA Governing Board for 2014-2016
 - Opening remarks by the President
 - Report of the activities of the association
 - Reports on CR consultations
 - State and Zonal Chapter activities and process for transfer of money
 - Appointment of a new secretariat
 - Financial status as on March 10, 2014
 - Any other matter
- Dr. Kandarpa Das, President, chaired the session. He welcomed everyone and gave a brief about the meeting held on 13th March, 2014. He shared the signed copy of the election results given by Prof OP Dewal, Election Officer. He discussed the process of elections and addressed grievances.
 - Mrs Kapoor, Treasurer, shared the financial details with those present, including UCs of workshops, sanction letters from the Ministry and other financial details. It was decided that the income tax returns would be circulated among all members.
 - The demand was made from members that there should be more interaction and exchange of letters as all could not access mails. President agreed that he will call everyone at least once a month. Secretary General said it was not possible to call every month.
 - It was discussed that the State chapters should get more active and should send photographs and reports regularly and also post them on Facebook and blogs.
 - It was decided that Chapters would be reimbursed through any one station for the activities, as opening of accounts and audit of each state chapter account would not be possible.
 - Dr Das also appreciated Tamilnadu and Puduchery chapter for their recent activities and meeting.
 - The newly elected Secretary General, (SG) CRA, requested state chapters to elect their own Secretary who could interact with the President and General Secretary on behalf of the State.
 - SG also emphasised on the need for CRA to set up 5 cells (WPC, DAVP, Capacity building, policy advocacy, Social audit) that would be responsible for understanding and solving issues of all members. Nominations would be solicited.
